2017 National ASL Scholarship, Part A

Before submitting your scholarship application, first verify that your institution's membership with the ASL Honor Society is current. Do this by:

Step 1: Visit the Chapters page of the ASLHS website (www.aslhonorsociety.org/Chapters.html).

Step 2: Scroll down and find your state and institution name.

Step 3: If there is an instructor's name and check mark for your school, send in your scholarship application.

Step 4: If there is no instructor name or check mark, your scholarship application will not be processed because your institution is not an active ASLHS member for 2016-2017. See Step 6 for more information.

Step 5: If your institution does not appear on the list at all, then your scholarship application will not be processed because your institution is not an active ASLHS member for 2016-2017. See Step 6 for more information.

Step 6: If your school is not an active member of the ASL Honor Society, discuss your interest in applying for the ASL Scholarship with one of the ASL instructors on your campus. Note that unless your institution joins the ASLHS, your scholarship cannot be processed. ASLHS membership needs to be resolved prior to submitting your ASL scholarship application.
